Learn with Hands-on Training

Learning is never done just within classroom. We at Bhavan's college believe that hands-on training makes miracles happen. The departments of English, Commerce and Management, all provide the students practical training in the best possible ways. Industrial Visits to DP, Vallarpadom, Well-worth polymers and many other industries were arranged for the students to enrich themselves from. The Mass Communication students publish their own magazines and newspapers individually. News reading and RJ training is provided to them alongside the curricular endeavours. Final semester students of BA English completed one month internship with prominent Public Relations Agencies. Orientation lectures by eminent visiting faculty is another resource for grooming them to face the professional world.
